—Thos. Burrow an eighteen year old boy, who has been working in the yard at Nelsonville, as a brakeman for about six months, missed his hold while trying to catch a passing train, last Saturday, and was thrown under the cars. It was necessary to amputate the right leg and his left leg is badly broken. He will very likely recover.

—Demorest's Monthly Magazine for December is indeed an elegant Christmas number. The fine oil picture, "Sledging," represents a snow scene in the time of the French Directory. It is a work of art worth several times the cost of the Magazine. The beautiful photo-engraving, "The Holy Mother," is exquisitely done, and appeals to every heart at this Christmas-tide.

"Across the Continent," by Jennie June, is profusely illustrated, the name of the author being enough to recommend it, as her graphic pen produces but what is good. Demorest's Monthly is fortunate in having such an editress, for under her direction a magazine is produced that no lady can afford to do without, for it certainly contains the essentials of all others, being eminently a family magazine from which any lady can get all the information she may require on any subject, even to all the patterns she may wish to use during the year, as each number contains an order entitling the holder to a selection of any pattern in that number and in any size manufactured. This is the biggest $2 worth that can be found. The publisher W. Jennings Demorest, 17 East 14th St., N. Y.

Married.
On Thursday evening Nov. 25, at the bride's residence, in Marion Township by Rev. Geiger, Mr. Elias Reber and Mrs. Malinda Rable.

By Rev. Geiger, at the residence of Andrew Wright, Nov. 20 in Marion Tp. Philip M. Sholl and Miss Maggie Wright, both of this County.

Born.
To Jesse Tennahill and wife Nov. 25 1886, a daughter.

Died.
On Tuesday Nov. 23 at the residence, one mile east of Gibsonville Mrs. John Krinn.

Wanted for Justice.
The Grand Jury at this term of court found indictments in nineteen cases as follows:

Christ Hall, assault and battery; Tena Dill, assault and battery; James Dailey, shooting with intent to kill; Ellen Downey, keeping house of ill fame; Irwin Wright, shooting with intent to kill; John W. Ball, assault; Thomas E. Davis, breaking and entering and committing personal violence; Charles Hazeltine, assault; Rali Yates, using threatening language; Robert Laird, keeping open saloon.

In the other cases warrants have not been served and hence they cannot be made public.

Infirmity Notes.
Quite a religious revival is now on at the Infirmary among the women, under the supervision of Nancy Logsten. Nearly all profess conversion.

Old Mr. Swalley, an inmate, fell one day last week and broke his left arm near the shoulder. Dr. Wright was called and set the fracture. He is doing well.

The health of the inmates is generally good.

Mr. W. A. Murphy gives good satisfaction as superintendent.

A Problem.
A horse is fastened to one corner of a barn 24 ft. square by means of a rope 90 ft long: Over how much land can he graze? Send answers to THE OHIO DEMOCRAT.

Plenty of mud in these quarters. We sell it cheap.

Miss Lida Whitcraft closed a fall term of school in Salt-creek township, the 6th inst.

The assistant P. M. of our town, Eva Hutchinson, spent vacation among friends of Logan, last week.

Miss Stella Gold will teach the winter school in what is known as the Johnston district, near South Perry.

Mr. Hutchinson's house is about to receive the first coat of plastering. Mr. Hutchinson does not like to see it snow or rain. He's afraid he will be snowed out.

Mr. W. T. Whitcraft is the happy owner of a boy. His face reminds us of a "big sunflower."

We are pleased to note that Mr. Ed. Ricketts has closed a term of school near Gore. He intends to spend a short vacation with friends in our town, before beginning an eight months term of school in Salt-creek township.

Prayer meeting every Sunday night at the M. E. Church.

Miss Schooley will give a literary entertainment in the near future.

Wishing the DEMOCRAT success we are,

J. S. Haynes started for Kansas last Friday. He expects to make that State his future home.

Milton Armstrong started for Kansas last Monday to look at some land that parties wish to trade for his mill property here.

Miss Lizzie Young spent Sunday with her mother.

C. C. Haynes has bought the saloon formerly owned by his brother. Hereafter the business will be conducted by him.

Mr. Henry Drum is very sick at this writing.

Mr. Charles Culp of Toledo is visiting his parents.

Wm. Steel was visiting relatives at Kinderhook, Pickaway county, last Sunday.

The boys say there is a bran new coon in town.

Hunters plenty, quails scarce.

Mrs. Minerva Hedges, widow of the late Joseph Hedges, of this place, died at the residence of her mother, Mrs. S. A. Hulva, Sunday morning, the 14. Funeral services at the C. P. church, at Whisler, on Monday at 10 o'clock, Rev. Durant officiating, interment at the Whisler cemetery by the side of her first husband, Byron Lutz. Her age 36 yrs., 4 mo. and 8 days. She leaves four children, the eldest 17—the youngest 11 years of age.

Field's Minstreis.
Al. Field & Co's United Operatic Minstreis gave the best minstrel show of the season. The singing, dancing, jokes, puns and specialties were in the main original. The sensational performances of Dawn were the best ever witnessed here. He is certainly a wonderful performer. There are a number of clever people with the company. Horace McLean, the Paganini of the banjo and other musical instruments; Robert L. Turner, the musical genius; Chas. Sweeney the character comedian; Bulger and Jenkins, the Lancashire Lads; Diamond Brothers, dancers; the Sweet Voiced Mendelshohn Quartette, Graham Bros., W. A. Junker, Frank Farrell, James Whitney and Al. Field—with this array of talent no show could be anything but a success. There is an air of refinement pervading the entertainment which is commendable. They return in March and will receive an ovation.—Ohio State Journal.

Our Neighbors.
Athens county.

The Salvation Army has opened out at Nelsonville.

The promising local option movement is on foot at Albany.

A Farmers' Institute will be held at Nelsonville, lasting two days, January 19th and 20th.

The Hocking Valley road is daily hauling about four hundred cars, or about six thousands tons of coal from Nelsonville.

At a special meeting of the Board of Commissioners, held last week, the petition of the citizens of Trimble asking for the incorporation of that village was granted by a unanimous vote of the Board.

The two story frame residence of Thuman K. Rossiter, on the old Leonard Brown place, a mile this side of the village of Albany, was wholly destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon.

A misplaced switch was instrumental in completely overturning a locomotive on the Hocking Valley railroad at Nelsonville, Saturday evening. The engineer and fireman succeeded in escaping injury by jumping.

The arbitrators of the mining troubles at the Job and Brashers mines near Nelsonville will meet tomorrow, Friday, to render their final decision. These are machine mines and are now paying twenty-seven cents per ton, the operatives asking an advance of three cents.

On Tuesday of last week while F. R. Gross, of Logan, was walking from Nelsonville to Buchtel in company with one Davis, he detected the latter in an attempt to slip his pocket book from his pocket, whereupon he escorted Davis to the muzzle of his revolver to Buchtel where he walked him before Justice Lane who committed him to the Athens jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Special Notice.

About two or three weeks ago I had stolen from my office over 1000 fine labels. I know the low villainous boy that took them; and find that they are freely circulating among the young boys and girls at school. A number of them have been returned to me. All who have any will do me a kindness if they return them, if they do not, I will hold them as participating in the theft.

G. W. DOLLISON.

The vote of Ohio on the 2d inst slightly exceeded 700,000. The combined majorities in the Congress districts show 10,000 Republican. Secretary of State Robinson's plurality (11,681) is but 339 more than it was in 1884.
